

Specialink's Resource Centre: Resource Summary

Resources that are unique to Specialink's Resource Centre in the University of Winnipeg's Helen Betty Osborne Building at 509/511 Ellice Avenue include several publications that are specifically related to inclusion, disability, early intervention, young children and child care. Specialink subscribes to various magazines and journals, and purchases books and DVDs deemed relevant and beneficial, and is very fortunate to receive resources from publishers across Canada and internationally. We appreciate the support of the Province of Manitoba to make our resource centre more accessible to the community.

Some examples of magazines and journals found in the SL Resource Centre include:

- Teaching Exceptional Children
- Young Exceptional Children
- Exceptional Parent
- Topics in Early Childhood Special Education
- Teacher Education and Special Education
- Journal of Early Intervention
- Journal for the Education of the Gifted

Examples of books and video/DVD resources include:

- DEC Recommended Practices: A Comprehensive Guide for Practical Application in Early Intervention/Early Childhood Special Education (2005)
- Inclusion in Early Childhood Settings: Children with Special Needs in Canada (2006)
- Designing Early Childhood Facilities: Resource Guide 2 (2006)
- Creating the Circle of Healthy Child Care (2006)
- All About Child Care and Early Education: A Comprehensive Resource for Child Care Professionals (2006)
- Mothers of Courage (National Film Board)
- Day Nursery Centre: Workplace Health Safety and Wellness DVD
- Fun For All: Universal Design for Playspaces Video

Specialink has a wide variety of provincial, federal and international reports and research documents related to child care and social policy. We have a number of child assessment tools (Non Biased Children's Assessments, Nipissing Developmental Screens, Ages & Stages Questionnaires (ASQ) and The Carolina Curriculum). Child care leadership, family centred practice, mentoring and developmentally appropriate practices are well represented on our shelves. Also in stock are many of the resources found in other child care related libraries, such as Young Children, Child Care Bridges, Interaction and various books and manuals specific to child care curriculum, practices and research.

So come on down to 509/511 Ellice Avenue and visit Specialink's Resource Centre! We look forward to seeing you and lending out our helpful resources. (Please call first to book an appointment.)
